NJ CHORAL CONSORTIUM

invites you to a Special Workshop

for all singers and conductors

The Alexander Technique: Breathing Coordination for Singers

- Learn how posture affects breath and support
- Clarify your basic anatomical understanding
- Discover solutions to many fundamental vocal issues
- Put these techniques and info into immediate use

featuring

Valerie Van Hoven

Ms. Van Hoven studied at the Hartt Conservatory, SUNY Purchase, and earned a BA in Music Ed. from Montclair St. Univ., plus graduate certification from the American Center for the Alexander Technique. She is now an adjunct faculty member at both Kean University and Montclair St. Univ., teaching voice and the Alexander Technique. Valerie has given workshops at Wagner College, MEA New Jersey, Caldwell College, and at many other sites. An accomplished pianist with extensive experience in musical theater, she maintains a private studio in Denville, NJ where she teaches voice, piano, and lessons in Alexander Technique.

Sunday, April 2, 2017

2:00 PM to 4:30 PM

Middlebush Reformed Church

1 South Middlebush Road
Somerset, NJ 08873

http://www.middlebushreformedchurch.com/about/directions/

Registration Fee:
NJCC members $10., Non-members $15.

Contact us:
info@njchoralconsortium.org

Register online at www.njchoralconsortium.org, or via the form below

(Please Print)

Name _____

Street Address _____

City, St./ Zip Code _____

Phone number _____

E-mail _____

Chorus Member ☐ Ensemble _____

Amount enclosed $_____

Please make checks payable to "N.J. Choral Consortium"

Mail completed form and check to:

NJ Choral Consortium
PO Box 5424
Somerset, NJ 08875-5424

Walk-in registrations welcome!